

Dear Friends and Family of Christ,

Greetings in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ!

First of all, I wanted to send out our sincerest gratitude to all of you who have supported this ministry in the past or are currently partnering with us for the expansion of God's kingdom. We are so very appreciative of the faithfulness and generosity of those who have sown into our ministry and we wanted to express our sincere gratitude. I firmly believe that any monies or prayers that you have sown into Living Logos Ministries have been sown on good ground.

You see, when you sow into this ministry, you are promoting change through the written word that is being spread throughout the United States. Also, you are promoting change around the world- primarily in the nation of India. We are seeing God's healing power manifested, the prophetic word spoken, and the transformation of people's lives through His Word. It is awesome to see what God is doing! So know that when you sow into this ministry, you are sowing into ground that is indeed bearing fruit for the glory of God. And as a result, you can absolutely expect a plentiful harvest- not only in this age, but also in the age to come.

And, friends, let me encourage you with one of the wonderful promises of God's Word along these lines- Philippians 4:19. In this verse, the Apostle Paul says, "And my God shall supply all your need according to His riches in glory by Christ Jesus." Many love to quote this verse, but are ignorant concerning the context that Paul was saying it in. You see, the little conjunction "And" at the beginning of this verse indicates this promise was tied together with his previous statements. And I don't have time to go into great detail here, but the Letter to the Philippians was mainly a thank you letter to His group of partners (see 1:5 and 4:10-18). So this promise we find in Philippians 4:19 is a specific promise given to those who faithfully and generously partner together with good, solid ministries! Amen!

Now what I just love about this promise to partners is that Paul didn't just say that God would supply their need out of His riches in glory; no, He said that it would be according to His riches in glory. What's the difference, you ask? It's a big difference! Say, for instance, a billionaire supplied your financial need out of what he possesses: then that would mean he could give you just barely enough to satisfy your need. But if he supplied your need according to His riches, then that would mean he would give you a gift in proportion to what He had, not what you needed. Hallelujah! Do you see that? Now we know God is worth a whole lot more than a billionaire, right? So we are talking about a 2 Corinthians 9:8 and Ephesians 3:20 type of blessing here! Glory to God!

So I say all of this to say, the Word of God teaches us (and I have proven this out in my life as well) that it is in our own best interest to partner together with ministries and faithfully help supply their needs. For as we have seen, the reward of this particular kind of giving is awesome! Amen?

And that is the purpose of this letter to you today- to let you know that Living Logos Ministries is certainly one of those ministries that you can partner together with and trust that you are sowing into ground that is bearing fruit.

Friends, here at LLM, we are a teaching and mission minded ministry that has gone from writing books to now having a regular television program. We travel regularly to India to train and equip leaders and future leaders. Yes, even while I am pastoring a local church here in Macon, GA, Living Logos is still actively doing its part in the ever increasing kingdom of God. Amen!

So I encourage you that if you have been blessed by our ministry and/or want to join our vision of teaching and discipling God's children all around the world, please pray about partnering with us to fulfill this mission.

We value your friendship and would be honored to have you come alongside of us- working together with us at fulfilling our God-ordained mandate. Please prayerfully consider either supporting us on a monthly basis or helping us with a one-time gift. Please know as well that all financial gifts are considered tax deductible as Living Logos Ministries is a 501c-3 Tax-Exempt Corporation.

Enclosed you will find an insert- one side being for those who feel led to partner with us and the other side being for those who might want to help us with a one-time gift. If you feel led to join us, please just fill out and return the enclosed insert with your checks made payable to Living Logos Ministries (or LLM). Thank you in advance for your love and support!

You can also donate to our ministry by credit/debit card through our website found below.

Victoriously,
